

What is the Roanoke Civil War Round Table (RCWRT)?

The Roanoke Civil War Round Table is an autonomous, nonpartisan organization. Its purpose is to promote and stimulate interest in all aspects of the Civil War period and to further the serious discussion and study of the 1861-1865 period in American History

What does the RCWRT offer its members?

It provides outstanding monthly programs which include speakers, debates, panel discussions, battlefield tours, an annual banquet, and The Civil War Dispatch our monthly newsletter.

Who can join?

The membership is open to anyone who has an interest in American Civil War history. Everyone joins to learn.

What is the tenet of the RCWRT?

Its primary goal is education followed by its support of national and regional organizations that preserve battlefield and historic Civil War sites. It is a life member of the Civil War Preservation Trust.

When are the meetings held?

The RCWRT meets the second Tuesday, September through June, 7PM at Friendship Hall, Friendship Retirement Community, 397 Hershberger Road, NW (corner of Florist Rd.) Roanoke, Virginia. Exit 3E of I-581. Any changes are noted in the newsletter.

What is the history of the RCWRT?

The Roanoke Civil War Round Table was founded by Harry Smith in August 1983. It first met in local libraries and later moved to Roanoke's Center in the Square. Due to growth, the RCWRT moved to its current location, Friendship Hall at the Friendship Retirement Community in 1995.
